

Counting Creatures

Lori (Peth) Fraesdorf & Rosanna Gallagher

Counting Creatures, a captivating counting song and story about

WHO? creatures at Halloween, is now available in a digital version for everyone to share with the important young people in their lives (students, sons, daughters, grandchildren, nieces, nephews, neighbors,...!)

WHAT?

Don't miss out on this exciting opportunity to meet with its originators and acquaint yourself with learning through these delightful creatures. You'll enjoy entertaining learning involving a number of Common Core Standards across the grade levels in English Language Arts, and Math (in addition to valuable music skills and safety issues)! Targets K-3, but older students love these creatures, too!

WHEN? Saturday, September 27, 2014 from 2 - 5 p.m.

WHERE?

Tucson Racquet & Fitness Club
4001 N. Country Club Rd.
Tucson, AZ 85716

WHY? You're a lifelong learner, and for only $25 you can register for this exciting workshop and receive a DVD with sing-a-long and instrumental versions of the Counting Creatures book, in addition to digital versions of all of the learning activities. Each participant will be included in drawings for examples of each of the activities presented.

Hurry on over to <http://www.soul-education.com> and preview this really awesome creature feature. You'll be able to preview a slideshow of teaching ideas, listen to the first two verses of the song and view the first two pages of creatures.

Then use the PayPal secure link to register for the Counting Creatures workshop and meet with Lori Fraesdorf, Rosanna Gallagher and Judi Busche to open a door to the pathway for creating excitement about learning with many coordinated creature activities! Hurry!! First come basis - limited to the first fifty human creatures by September 23rd!
